JOSEPH CARDINAL BERNARDIN DOCTOR OF LAWS, HONORIS CAUSA

College Misericordia today singles out Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, Archbishop of Chicago, to receive an honorary degree in recognition of his personal and professional efforts to promote peace and justice and unity, three primary religious concerns which dominate this half of the twentieth century. Nationally and internationally acknowledged as a leader in contemporary Church law and Church life, Cardinal Bernardin has consistently exemplified the ideal of compassionate caring through compassionate service that the very name Misericordia implies.

Born in Columbia, South Carolina, Joseph Louis Bernardin studied for the priesthood at St. Mary's College, Kentucky, and received his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore. At the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., where he also pursued theological studies, he earned a Master of Arts degree in Education. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1952.

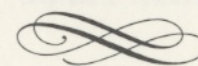

Leadership qualities were immediately evident in Father Bernardin; during his 14 years in the Charleston diocese he served as Chancellor, Vicar General, Consultor, and Administrator. It was his ability as a leader that brought him to the attention of Pope John XXIII, who acknowledged the young priest as papal chamberlain and, later, domestic prelate. He became Auxiliary Bishop of Atlanta in April, 1966, Archbishop of Cincinnati in 1968, Archbishop of Chicago in 1982, and was consecrated a Cardinal in 1983.

It was in 1968, however, that he began the work with which his name is to this day associated: Bishop Bernardin was elected General Secretary of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and the United States Catholic Conference as American bishops began the work entrusted to them by the Second Vatican Council. In 1974 he was elected President of both associations and later chaired the Bishop's Committee on War and Peace which prepared the pastoral letter "The Challenge of Peace: God's Promise and Our Response."

Perhaps Cardinal Bernardin's greatest gift is his in-born talent to be a leader of leaders. At home and abroad his elected and appointed positions are consistently to preside, to advise, to be a consultant or to serve as a Trustee. Pontiffs and Presidents alike have sought him out for his ideas on Social Communications, on Catholic Education, on Revision of Canon Law, on Promotion of Christian Unity, on organizing World Synods of Bishops, on Human Development. In 1983 he received the Albert Einstein Foundation Peace Prize.

He prays, he writes, he writes about prayer; he watches over the religious education of children; he leads the ministerial priesthood. He preaches, although he has no need to preach for his life in Christ and in Christ's Church is eloquent testimony to his commitment to compassion, his philosophy of caring enough to speak, to lead, to serve.

MISERICORDIA ALMA MATER

Sister Teresa Mary, R.S.M.

Woodland Home on Dallas Heights
Majestic, grand in view
Your loyal students far and near,
Proclaim their love for you.
Your banner bright of truth and light
Shall proudly o'er us wave
Its shining gold and azure blue
Denote your spirit brave.

REFRAIN:

Misericordia We're proud of you.
We love your murm'ring pine trees,
your groves and grotto too
You are our Alma Mater,
and to you we will e'er be true
Misericordia we hail,
dear Misericordia.

When from you we must depart
Our spirit shall remain
We'll ne'er forget your rolling hills
Whose beauty all acclaim.
Your classic halls are our delight
Your campus is our pride
Your shield of honor, strength and might
Shall ever be our guide.
